LICCO announces mall kiosk location

HEATH – LICCO Inc. recently began selling its exclusive products in a kiosk shop located inside Indian Mound Mall, Heath.

LICCO is selling Spirit Line products and other retail items near the food court on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays during regular mall business hours throughout the holiday shopping season.

Spirit Line products are manufactured, packaged and sold by Licking County residents who have developmental disabilities. LICCO employs more than 200 people.

LICCO is best known for its OSU Buckeye jewelry and accessories, but also carries a variety of high-quality costume jewelry; keychains representing collegiate and local sports teams, as well as all branches of the U.S. military; watches with beaded bands; necklaces; bracelets; pink ribbon items; and much more. LICCO also makes and sells customized jewelry upon request.

To view a sample of what LICCO has to offer, log on to www.LICCOINC.com, and click on the Spirit Line link. Online shopping opportunities are available on this recently revamped Web site.

Potential shoppers also will find LICCO products sold inside the lobby of the workshop, 600 Industrial Parkway, Heath, or in several area businesses including Christie's Pizza and Park Place Coffee Roasters, both in downtown Newark. Spirit Line products also are available for purchase at the Eleanor S. Weiant Center, 116 N. 22nd St., Newark. Call LICCO at (740) 522-8345 for a complete list of retail locations.

LICCO Inc. is a non-profit business that provides work opportunities to individuals with developmental disabilities. LICCO works with the Licking County Board of Developmental Disabilities to provide opportunities that promote independence. LICCO offers a variety of jobs and training activities in the workshop and the community. Employment is a vital part of the lives of people with disabilities in Licking County.
