

"Social Competence"

Social competence refers to a person's ability to get along with other people.

Childhood is a time for children to learn about the world and that includes learning how to get along with others. Parents play a crucial role in helping children figure out how to form satisfying relationships and develop into socially competent people. Social competence allows children to be cooperative and generous, express their feelings, and empathize with others.

Donna Owens, OCALI
(Ohio Center for Autism and Low Incidence)

Joe Farry , M.A. SST-Region 11 Consultant

On October 20th
6:30 – 8:00 PM

At OSUN/COTC
In the Warner Center 2nd Floor

For more information please call:

Eva Marino, Newark City Schools Parent Mentor
740 670-7060

Nancy Banks, Licking County Schools Parent Mentor
Telephone: (740) 349-6947

Or

Christa Milner, My Place To Be 740-398-9642