

Early Intervention Story Time at the Library

This Story time is for children between the ages of 18 to 36 months and their caregivers. Each 30 minute session includes books, along with songs, finger plays and a craft or play activity for the adult and child to do together.

Highlights

- Sign up for a library card.
- Check out books appropriate for this age.
- Learn songs and finger plays that you can do with your child.
- Encourage language, and movement for healthy development.
